

Pike County
Health Department

Flu Clinic

Location:

Pikeland Community School

601 Piper Lane
Pittsfield, Illinois

Date: Sunday, November 21, 2004

Time: 10:00 am to 4:00 pm

You must be:

- Pike County Resident
- 65 years or older
- 19 - 64 years old with long-term health problems such as: asthma or other lung diseases such as emphysema; chronic heart disease requiring hospitalization within the past 12 months; medication-dependent diabetes; weakened immune system due to HIV/AIDS, medications, chemotherapy, or radiation
- Woman pregnant through the flu season

Bring the following items:

List of Medications, Proof of Residency, Medicare Card.

Due to the vaccine shortage healthy persons, regardless of age, are asked to defer vaccine to allow for high-risk persons to get vaccinated.